

Commonwork

spring workshop

celebrating our heritage through food and festivals

Bore Place

nr Edenbridge, Kent

Sat 10 April 2010

10.30am-3.30pm

cycle racks and route maps available

- heritage hedgerow survey
- spring garden works
- global water ways
- victorian tea time
- springtime tales
- children's crafts
- milking time

see over for details

adults £10 children £5

including lunch and refreshments

directions

Between Edenbridge and Tonbridge. Turn off B2027 between Chiddingstone Causeway and Bough Beech. Follow road signs to Bore Place.

For further details contact Lyn Kelly 01732 463255 ext 229

spring workshops

celebrating our heritage through food and festivals

Coffee and tea available from 10.30am

Morning workshops 11am-12.30pm

 spring garden works

Discover how to turn corners of your garden into safe havens for wildlife.
Children under 8 must be accompanied by an adult.

 global water ways

Find out about global water festivals, our everyday virtual water and how we use it.
Then make a waterdrop mobile. Children under 8 must be accompanied by an adult.

 heritage hedgerow survey

Be part of our survey and discover how our ancient hedgerow grows. Compare your results to our millennium survey. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

 victorian tea time

Discover what Queen Victoria had to do with teatime and make delicious teatime treats to take away. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

 springtime tales

Join our storyteller and weave your own magical tales of spring and time and special places. Children under 10 must be accompanied by an adult.

 children's crafts

Find out about Queen Victoria's global chickens, create a Victorian model farm, make a spring bonnet, and more... Children under 8 must be accompanied by an adult.

lunch break: two sittings (12.30pm-2pm)

Delicious lunch and fairly-traded refreshments are included in the entry charge.
During the lunch break there will be a storytelling session for all.

Afternoon workshops 2pm-3.30pm

Choose from the morning workshops, which will be repeated in the afternoon.

The afternoon children's craft session will include the chance to have a go at milking. All children must be accompanied by an adult for the milking session.

booking

Workshops must be pre-booked using the attached booking form.
Please send the form, along with the fee, to Lyn Kelly at Commonwork, Bore Place, Chiddingstone, Edenbridge, Kent TN8 7AR.

01732 463255 ext 229 info@commonwork.org www.commonwork.org

Commonwork is a group of organisations based on an organic farm and study centre, and working towards sustainable solutions in farming, the environment and education.

